ADMINISTRATION

NORTH BROOK HIGH SCHOOL

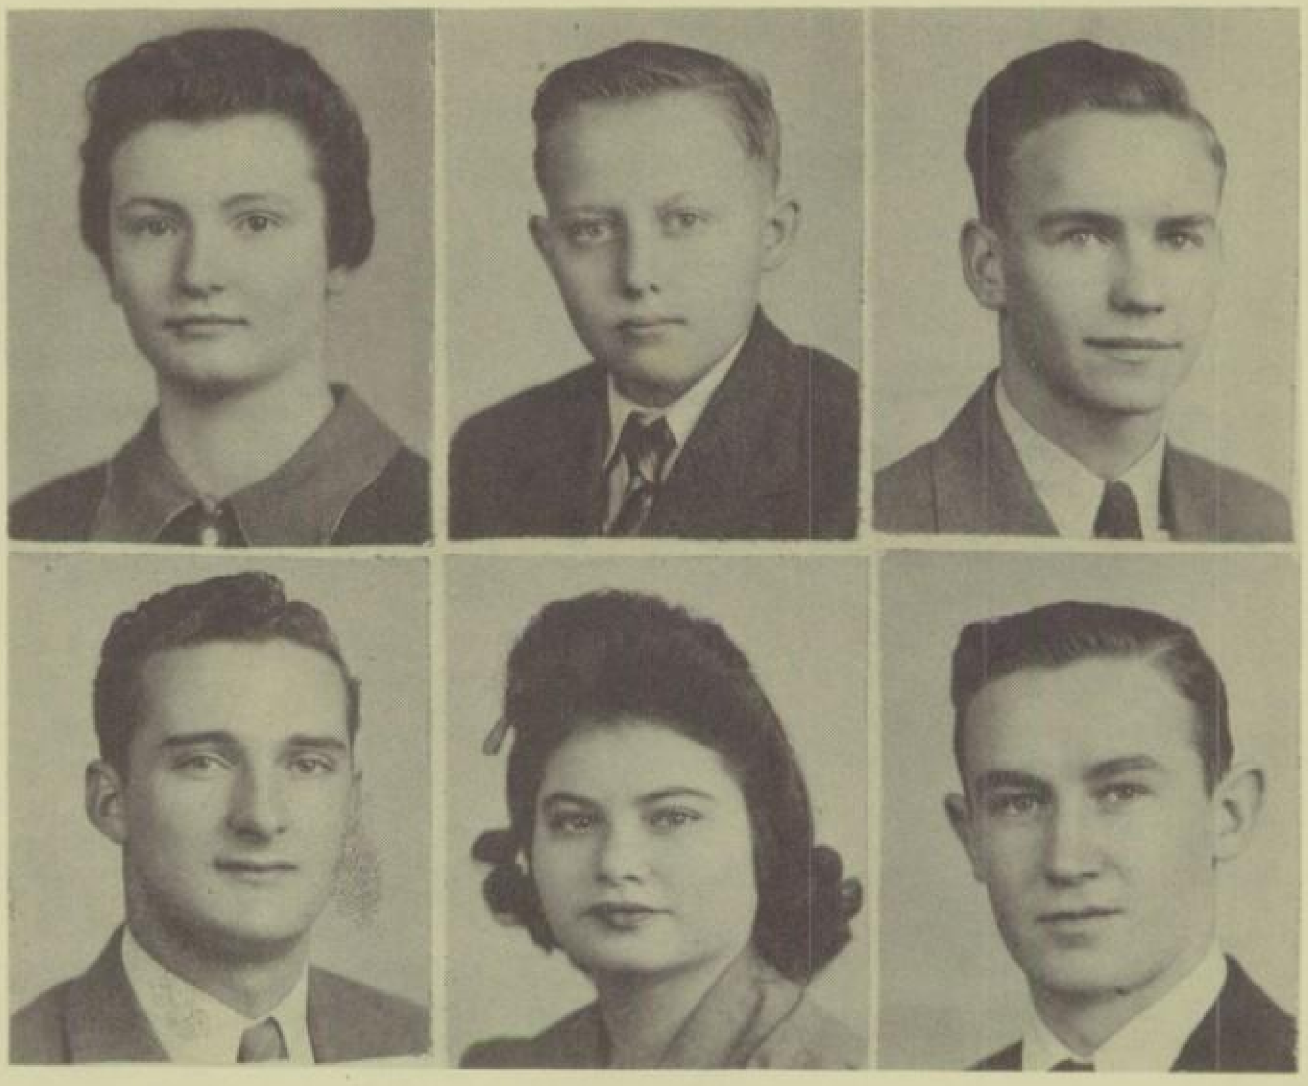

Oh, North Brook, we sing our song
of praise to you,
Oh, North Brook, to you we ever will be true,
You've given us a vision that will last
for many a day,
You've helped us, you've taught us,
You've trained us in the thoughtful way.

CLASS WILL

We, the senior class of 1942, being of sound mind and body, do hereby make as our last will and testament the following settlements of virtues and possessions on the members of the several classes which follow in our footsteps.

1. I, Rayford Beam, will my ability to play basketball to Robert Boyles.
2. I, Connie Belle Bess, will my mischievousness to Leona Baxter.
3. To Kenneth Connor I, Johnny Baxter, will my habit of laziness.
4. I, Helen Beam, will my "naps" on French class to Floe Beam.
5. I, Clara Belle Boyles, will my Babbling Brook stencils to Kathleen Beam.
6. I, Farrel Gantt, will my love for English to Glenn Hardin.
7. I, Charlene Baxter, will my industriousness to Mary Agnes Hull.
8. I, Paul Leatherman, will my Physics book to Ardell Willis.
9. I, Billy Burton, will my French studies to Hillard Lee Beam.
10. I, Pete Bess, will my loafing to Brownie Tallent.
11. I, Virginia Williams, bequeathe to Sarah Dellinger my love for foolish things.
12. I, John Hull, bestow upon Billy Hoyle my ability to aggravate Miss Seagle and Mr. Heavner.
13. I, Beulah Russ, will my short stature to Hettie Lee Leatherman.
14. I, Pearl Russ, will all my studies to Leona Baxter.
15. I, Helen Sue Bess, will to Betty Beam my long black hair.
16. I, Rowena Wilkinson, will my basketball ability to Floe Beam.
17. I, Lunez Self, will my ability to draw to Pauline Wehunt.
18. I, Hal Beam, will my big mouth and singing ability to Ellis Greene(poor Ellis).

CLASS WILL(Continued)

19. I, C. B. Harrelson, will my debating ability to Keith Beam.
20. I, Margaret Houser, leave with Karleen Beam my singing ability.
21. I, Joyce Heavner, leave my all-round qualities to Essie Martin.
22. I, Vergil Lingerfelt, will my "A's" to Kathleen Beam.
23. I, Margaret Richard, give my friendly smiles to Nevert Houser.
24. I, Christine Hoyle, will my typing ability to Irene Lackey.
25. I, Merle Leatherman, will my popularity to Geneva Raney.
26. I, Edith Tallent, will my title--"Basketball Girl of Beauty"--to Evelyn Greene.
27. I, Thelma Huss, will my mouselike ways to Ethel Roberts.
28. I, Margaret Ann Willis, leave my English book to Blonie Merl Towery.
29. I, Zane Yarbro, will my chewing tobacco to Mr. Howell.
30. I, Bernice Dellinger, will to Ray Hallman my basketball ability.
31. I, Blaine Parker, bequeathe my interest in Pauline Hull to Alton Anthony.
32. I, Dean Whisnant, will my bashfulness to Ellis Greene.
33. I, Kern Baxter, will to B. H. Saine my good looks.
34. I, Miss Inez Seagle, will to whomever will take them the present senior class knowing full well it will bring great joy and satisfaction.

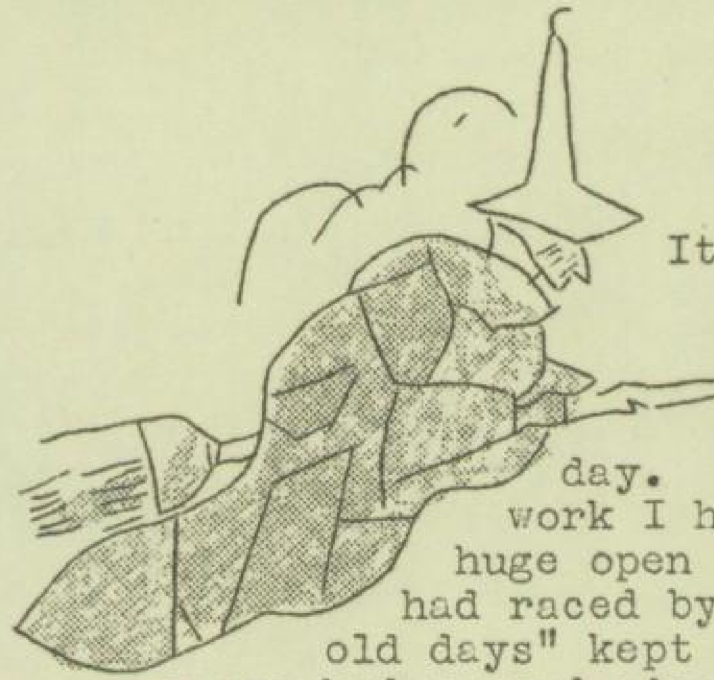

This then is the last will and testament of the senior class of 1942. We do hereby appoint Mr. J. H. Heafner as the sole executor of this document.

PROPHECY

It was the good year 1952. A bitter wind kept howling trying to penetrate into the privacy of my cozy apartment one raw March day. After the strenuous day's work I had thrown myself before a huge open fireplace. So many years had raced by. Thoughts of the "good old days" kept invading my brain. Ten years had passed since I had stepped from the portals of North Brook High with a diploma under one arm and ambition tucked under the other. Where are my classmates now? What are they doing? But even as I questioned thus, each flame leaping from the crackling logs took shape. Ha! That little flame represents Johnny Baxter, a henpecked husband, engaged in a profitable grocery business. He's still saying, "Yes, my lamb", to his better half. The next flame prancing before me proved to be none other than Helen Beam, famous dancing instructor. I chuckled to myself remembering how often she used to fall asleep on French class. Who's this? Yes, it's Connie Belle Bess, jolly housewife of Cherryville, who has been proving to her husband for a number of years just how tough she really is. This flame looks business like. Helen Sue Bess whose husband is owner of the Cherryville Ice and Fuel Company seems to enjoy loitering in the Mr.'s office. On the brow of a massive hill busy with paints and brushes is our dear old friend, "Cream Puff Boyles." We hear those paintings she did for the Boston Doughnut Company have made her famous. Hal Beam, mouthpiece of the class of '42, has become a famous radio announcer and we all tune in especially when he's announcing "Melody Ranch", starring the second Gene Autry, Paul Leatherman. Following a mule near Flay(the mule's really dragging him along) is dear old Pete Bess who's settled down at last with his lovely wife. Parked on Main Street in Lincolnton impatiently honking for her husband is the best all-round girl of the class, Joyce Heavner. What time she doesn't spend lecturing on "How To Take Care of Children", she spends with her devoted Jim.

PROPHECY(Continued)

In an office in Cherryville sits Christine Hoyle, a stenographer of great ability. They do say she's going to marry her boss. The scene shifts and this flame resembles a large hospital. Dr. Billy Burton, world famous surgeon, in the operating room is demonstrating his skill. Beside him stands his faithful head nurse, Thelma Huss. Rowena Wilkinson finally is married to the Belwood man and is teaching her little girl how to play ball. Rowena's pal, Merle Leatherman, married the man she met one January 4 and has a lovely home on Highway 27. Edith Tallent has become a Home Economics teacher following in her sister's footsteps. Margaret Richard and Vergil Lingerfelt are clerking in a large department store. The French teacher at North Brook is good old Virginia Williams. Kern Baxter and Zane Yarbro, prominent lawyers, are in court for a most interesting case, a land dispute settlement for two intelligent North Brook farmers, Dean Whisnant and Bernice Dellinger.

Margaret Ann Willis enjoys life as a nurse. Beulah Russ is a clerk in one of Cherryville's best department stores. She lives with her sister, Pearl, who is Johnny Baxter's better half. Rayford Beam, a high school coach, is twisting his hat as he watches his team play Stanley for the state championship. A dignified senior, John Hull, has become a famous flyer. Lunez Self, prettiest girl of the class, is a devoted wife but spends her appointed hours in New York as a model. Blaine Parker and C. B. are famous agricultural experts employed by the United States of America. Margaret Houser, famous singing star of the screen, has returned to her home community to give a concert. Charlene Baxter is Head Matron of an Orphan Institution.

Once again I gaze into the fire but no flames appear. Only ashes are there. But I know that my old classmates have made their marks in the world and I fall into peaceful slumber.
